CHARACTERISTICS OF GEM

GEM has been positioned as a market designed to accommodate small and mid-sized companies to which a higher investment risk may be attached than other companies listed on the Stock Exchange. Prospective investors should be aware of the potential risks of investing in such companies and should make the decision to invest only after due and careful consideration.

Given that the companies listed on GEM are generally small and mid-sized companies, there is a risk that securities traded on GEM may be more susceptible to high market volatility than securities traded on the Main Board of the Stock Exchange and no assurance is given that there will be a liquid market in the securities traded on GEM.

(1) CONNECTED TRANSACTION INVOLVING SUBSCRIPTION OF

UNDER SPECIFIC MANDATE;
AND
(2) NOTICE OF EGM

INTRODUCTION

Reference is made to the Announcement in relation to, among others, the Subscription.

The circular sets out, among other things, (i) further details of the Subscription Agreement, and the transactions contemplated thereunder (including without limitation, the allotment and issue of the Subscription Shares to the Subscriber and the grant of the Specific Mandate to the Directors for the allotment and issue of the Subscription Shares to the Subscriber); (ii) a letter of recommendation from the Independent Board Committee to the Independent Shareholders in respect of the Subscription; (iv) a letter of advice from Gram Capital to the Independent Board Committee and the Independent Shareholders on the Subscription; (v) a notice convening the EGM; and (vi) other information required under the GEM Listing Rules.

LETTER FROM THE BOARD

PRINCIPAL TERMS OF THE SUBSCRIPTION AGREEMENT

Date: 27 December 2024 (after trading hours of the Stock Exchange)

Parties: (i) the Company, as issuer; and
(ii) the Subscriber

Subscription Shares: 19,500,000 Subscription Shares

Subscription Price: HK$0.400 per Subscription Share

As at the Latest Practicable Date, the Subscriber is a substantial shareholder of the Company who beneficially owns 62,336,908 Shares, representing approximately 15.58% of the existing issued Shares of 400,000,000 Shares, and hence a connected person of the Company under the GEM Listing Rules.

SUBSCRIPTION SHARES

Pursuant to the Subscription Agreement, the Subscriber have conditionally agreed to subscribe for, and the Company has conditionally agreed to allot and issue, an aggregate of 19,500,000 Subscription Shares, representing approximately 4.88% of the existing issued Shares of 400,000,000 Shares as at the Latest Practicable Date and approximately 4.65% of the enlarged issued Shares of 419,500,000 Shares immediately following Completion, assuming that there will be no change in the total number of issued Shares (other than the issue of the Subscription Shares) between the Latest Practicable Date and Completion.

SUBSCRIPTION PRICE

The Subscription Price of HK$0.400 per Subscription Share represents:

- (a) a discount of approximately 13% to the closing price of HK$0.46 per Share as quoted on the Stock Exchange on 27 December 2024, being the Last Trading Day;
- (b) a discount of approximately 13% to the average closing price of approximately HK$0.46 per Share as quoted on the Stock Exchange for the last five (5) trading days up to and including the Last Trading Day;
- (c) a discount of approximately 13% to the average closing price of approximately HK$0.46 per Share as quoted on the Stock Exchange for the last ten (10) trading days up to and including the Last Trading Day.

LETTER FROM THE BOARD

The Subscription Price was determined after arm's length negotiation between the Company and the Subscriber after taking into account the prevailing market price of the Shares, the trading volume of the Shares and existing capital market conditions generally. In view of (i) the Subscription Price represents a slight discount over the average closing prices of the Shares of approximately HK$0.422 for the period from 27 December 2023 (being the 12-month period prior to the Last Trading Day) and up to the Latest Practicable Date (the "Review Period") as a benchmark and (ii) the low trading volume of the Shares during the Review Period with average daily trading volume amounted approximately 0.01% to the total issued Shares as at the Latest Practicable Date with more than half of the number of days (163 days out of 247 days) during the Review Period recording zero daily transactions, and if removing such zero daily trading days would mean the average closing prices of Shares becoming approximately HK$0.407; (iii) it is in the interests of the Company to strengthen its liquidity position by issuing Subscribed Shares under Specific Mandate as existing debt and equity capital markets are unfavorable to smaller cap companies; and (iv) the Directors considered that the Subscription Price has to be set at a reasonable discount to the recent share price in order to attract the Subscriber to subscribe the Subscription Shares and ensure the Subscription to be completed in short time, while duly taking into account the lack of availability for the Subscriber to purchase the intended number of Subscription Shares on the market without impacting the share price. The Directors (including the independent non-executive Directors, whose view has been included in the section headed "Letter from the Independent Board Committee" in this circular), are of the view that the terms of the Subscription Agreement (including the Subscription Price) are fair and reasonable, on normal commercial terms, and in the interests of the Company and the Shareholders as a whole.

The Subscription Shares have an aggregate nominal value of HK$195,000 and market value of HK$8,970,000 based on the closing price of HK$0.46 per Share on the Last Trading Day. The net proceeds from the Subscription, after deduction of relevant costs and expenses, is estimated to be approximately HK$7,300,000. The net Subscription Price per Subscription Share, after deduction of relevant costs and expenses, is estimated to be approximately HK$0.374.

Based on a benchmarked price of HK$0.46 per Shares which is the higher of: (i) the closing price on the date of the agreement involving the Subscription; and (ii) the average closing price in the 5 trading days immediately prior to the earlier of: (1) the date of announcement of the Subscription; (2) the date of the agreement involving the Subscription; and (3) the date on which the Subscription Price was fixed, the Subscription Price of HK$0.40 per Share represent a theoretical dilution effect of approximately 0.61% for the purposes of Rule 10.44A of the GEM Listing Rules.

RANKING

The Subscription Shares, when issued and fully paid, will rank pari passu in all respects among themselves and with all other Shares in issue at the time of allotment and issue of the Subscription Shares.

LETTER FROM THE BOARD

CONDITIONS PRECEDENT UNDER THE SUBSCRIPTION AGREEMENT

- (a) the passing of resolution(s) by the Independent Shareholders at the EGM approving the Subscription Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereunder;

- (d) all consents, approvals or waivers (as the case may be) that the Company and the Subscriber reasonably considers necessary pursuant to applicable laws, regulations or rules (including but not limited to the GEM Listing Rules) for its execution, implementation and completion of the Subscription Agreement having been obtained.

In the event the above conditions are not fulfilled by 28 February 2025, the Subscription Agreement shall terminate and all rights, obligations and liabilities of the parties under the Subscription Agreement in relation to the Subscription shall cease and determine and none of the parties shall have any claim against the others in respect of the Subscription save for any antecedent breach. LETTER FROM THE BOARD

RECENT DEVELOPMENT

The Directors noted there is notably improved trading environment for the Company and its relative value volatility trading strategies. As announced on 15 October 2024, the Company's flagship True Partner Fund had a positive net return of +2.99% over September, bringing gains over the third quarter of 2024 to +6.24% net of fees. Not only was the performance of the True Partner Fund well ahead of most peers, this current year has so far also marked a possible end to what has been periodically referenced in the Company's Management Letters as a relatively challenging trading environment.

Over the period since the month-end October return of +6.2%, the S&P 500 index has risen by +4.2% while implied volatilities have globally declined, as reflected in the -30% decline of the VIX index. Therefore, the performance of the flagship True Partner Fund during these final months of the year has further underscored the resilience of the Company's relative value volatility strategies, both on a stand-alone basis and when seen in comparison to its peers. One other recent development has been the launch of a new volatility strategy in conjunction with one of our large investors. The account which went 'live' on 9 December 2024 is further proof of the improved business environment for the Company.

Furthermore, the recent developments in Mainland China pose further potential business opportunities for the Company. From 26 September 2024 onwards (when the Politburo confirmed the aggressive stimulus measures which would also include fiscal stimulus) announcements and actions from various government entities (including the People's Bank of China, the China Securities Regulatory Commission and the Politburo) have reflected their desire to not only support the Chinese economy in general, but also the stock market. This has been noticed across the globe and it is our impression that sentiment outside of China with regards to Chinese equities (and by proxy those in Hong Kong) is improving. The Company is well placed to benefit from this development, both through the introduction of China-focused strategies and by its position as an Asia-based asset manager who are also represented in Europe and the US.

Overall, the Directors believe the more favorable operating environment as reflected in the above developments has the effect of improving the prospects for the funds and managed accounts under management of the Company as well as for the Company itself. As referenced in the Prospectus and subsequent reports, the Company's primary source of revenues is its fund management business. Fund management revenues are derived both from management fees and from performance fees. From that perspective, an increase in assets under management by the Company (either in the form of new investment into the existing funds and managed accounts, or in the form of investments in newly introduced strategies) could translate into an increase of management fee revenue. Similarly, improved investment performance could translate into an increase of performance fee revenue.

The Directors believe that these improved prospects have been a factor for the Subscriber to intend an additional investment in the Company.

LETTER FROM THE BOARD

REASONS FOR THE SUBSCRIPTION AND USE OF PROCEEDS

The Company is always open to opportunities to strengthen its liquidity position in a cost-effective way. This position is known to the Subscriber, who has been the Company's shareholder before its IPO, and to other potential investors.

The Company understands that the Subscriber has noted the Company's improved trading environment as set out in the paragraph headed "Recent Development" and therefore willing to transact the Subscription to strengthen the liquidity position of the Company in a cost effective manner.

From the perspective of the Company, the Directors consider that the Subscription offers a good opportunity to strengthen its liquidity and broaden the capital base of the Group so as to facilitate its future development.

The Directors has also considered other alternative methods to strengthen its liquidity such as debt financing, rights issue or open offer. The Board has considered that debt financing may incur financial costs on the Group, while rights issue or open offer will incur additional costs including but not limited to underwriting commission and other professional fee and require relatively longer time when compared to the Subscription. As such, the Directors consider that the Subscription represents a cost-effective mean to strengthen its liquidity comparing with the debt financing, rights issue or open offer.

Notwithstanding the potential dilution effect to the existing Shareholders which will arise from the Subscription, having considered (i) the potential business opportunities in line with the improved trading environment of the Company as stated in the paragraph headed "Recent Development"; (ii) the prevailing market price of the Shares recently and during the Review Period and the most recent unaudited net asset value per Share of the Company of approximately HK$0.14; (iii) the terms of the Subscription Agreement being fair and reasonable so far as the Independent Shareholders are concerned; and (iv) the Subscription represents an appropriate mean of fund raising for the Company as (a) it is less costly with no underwriting commission to be incurred for the Subscription; (b) the Subscription is relatively less time consuming compared to around 2 to 3 months of rights issue and open offer; and (c) there is material uncertainty on whether possible rights issue and open offer can be fully subscribed, the Directors (including the independent non-executive Directors, whose view has been included in the section headed "Letter from the Independent Board Committee" in this circular), are of the view that the Subscription is in the interests of the Company and the Shareholders as a whole.

MISCELLANEOUS

The Subscription was contemplated mutually between the Company and the Subscriber. The Company is always open to approach or approached by other shareholders or investors if the liquidity position of the Company can be further strengthened in a cost-effective manner. As at the Latest Practicable Date, saved for the Subscription, the Company does not have any concrete plans to carry out other fund-raising activities to strengthen its liquidity position. Should circumstances change, the Company will make further announcement in this regard in accordance with the GEM Listing Rules as and when appropriate.

LETTER FROM THE BOARD

The aggregate gross proceeds of the Subscription will be approximately HK$7,800,000. The aggregate net proceeds of the Subscription, after the deduction of related fees and expenses, will be approximately HK$7,300,000. The bank balance of the Company is approximately HK$32,700,000 as at the Latest Practicable Date.

Based on the level of expenses the Company incurred for the year ended 31 December 2024, the Company expects the net proceeds of HK$7,300,000 will be used to cover expenses such as salaries (approximately 58%), office administrative expenses (approximately 16%), professional fees such as audit and legal fees and financial printing fees (approximately 9%), and promotion, marketing, travelling and other general expenses (approximately 17%). The actual utilisation of the net proceeds will be reported in the reports of the Company. The Company expects that the net proceeds will be fully utilised by the end of 2025.

The Directors (other than the independent non-executive Directors who will give their opinion after considering the advice from Gram Capital), are of the view that the terms of the Subscription Agreement (including the Subscription Price) are fair and reasonable, on normal commercial terms, and in the interests of the Company and the Shareholders as a whole.

EQUITY FUND RAISING ACTIVITIES IN THE PAST TWELVE MONTHS

The Company has not conducted equity fundraising activity in the past 12 months immediately preceding the Latest Practicable Date.

LISTING APPLICATION

An application will be made by the Company to the Listing Committee of the Stock Exchange for the listing of, and permission to deal in, the Subscription Shares on the Stock Exchange.

We, Gram Capital Limited, have been appointed as the Independent Financial Adviser to advise the Independent Board Committee and the Independent Shareholders in this respect.

LETTER FROM GRAM CAPITAL

Our opinion is based on the Directors' representation and confirmation that there is no undisclosed private agreement/arrangement or implied understanding with anyone concerning the Subscription. We consider that we have taken sufficient and necessary steps on which to form a reasonable basis and an informed view for our opinion in compliance with Rule 17.96 of the GEM Listing Rules.

LETTER FROM GRAM CAPITAL

Lastly, where information in this letter has been extracted from published or otherwise publicly available sources, it is the responsibility of Gram Capital to ensure that such information has been correctly extracted from the relevant sources and such sources are reliable.

PRINCIPAL FACTORS AND REASONS CONSIDERED

In arriving at our opinion in respect of the Subscription, we have taken into consideration the following principal factors and reasons:

Information on the Group

With reference to the Board Letter, the Company is a Hong Kong, Europe and US based fund management group with a focus on volatility trading in liquid markets. The Group principally manage funds and managed accounts on a discretionary basis using a global relative value volatility strategy and other volatility strategies developed by the Group. The Company may also engage in limited trading of proprietary capital, principally via derivatives, as part of its research into new strategies and markets that may be appropriate for inclusion in the mandates it runs for external clients. The Group's roots in Hong Kong in combination with its current global footprint allow the Group to capitalize on market opportunities in the Asia Pacific markets and particularly those in Hong Kong and the PRC.

Set out below is the consolidated financial information of the Group for the two years ended 31 December 2023 and for the six months ended 30 June 2024 (together with comparative figures) as extracted from the Company's annual report for the year ended 31 December 2023 (the "2023 Annual Report") and the Company's interim report for the six months 30 June 2024 (the "2024 Interim Report"):

	For the six months ended 30 June 2024 ("1H2024") HK$'000 (unaudited)	For the six months ended 30 June 2023 ("1H2023") HK$'000 (unaudited)	Year- on-year change %	For the year ended 31 December 2023 ("FY2023") HK$'000 (audited)	For the year ended 31 December 2022 ("FY2022") HK$'000 (audited)	Year- on-year change %
Revenue	5,026	8,690	(42.16)	13,289	44,793	(70.33)
– Fee income from funds and managed accounts	3,534	8,372	(57.79)	12,398	44,106	(71.89)
– Consultancy services	840	318	164.15	873	687	27.07

Loss for the year/period	(26,871)	(29,704)	(9.54)	(67,001)	(33,508)	99.96

LETTER FROM GRAM CAPITAL

As illustrated in the above table, the Group's fee income from funds and managed accounts (comprised of management fees and performance fees) accounted for approximately 98.47% and 93.30% for FY2022 and FY2023 respectively. The Group's revenue decreased from approximately HK$44.8 million for FY2022 to approximately HK$13.3 million for FY2023, representing a decrease of approximately HK$31.5 million or 70.33%. With reference to the 2023 Annual Report, such decrease was mainly due to shifts in product mix and a decrease in assets under management. The Group's assets under management were approximately US$885 million as at 31 December 2023, representing a decrease of approximately US$631 million or 41.62% as compared to that as at 31 December 2022, primarily driven by the investment portfolio adjustments of some investors in the Group's products.

Along with the significant decrease in revenue as aforementioned, the Group's loss for FY2023 increased by approximately HK$33.5 million or 99.96% as compared to that for FY2022.

The Group's revenue for 1H2024 was approximately HK$5.0 million, representing a decrease of approximately HK$3.7 million or 42.16% as compared to that for 1H2023. With reference to the 2024 Interim Report, such decrease was primarily due to the decrease of the Group's revenue from funds and managed accounts that caused by the shifts in product mix over the period, which had the result of a decrease in the average revenue per unit of assets under management for 1H2024.

Notwithstanding the aforesaid significant decrease in the Group's revenue, the Group's loss for 1H2024 decreased by approximately 9.54% as compared to that for 1H2023. With reference to the 2024 Interim Report, the aforesaid decrease in the Group's loss was mainly due to the decrease in the Group's general and administrative expenses.

With reference to the 2023 Annual Report and 2024 Interim Report, the Group's assets under management decreased from approximately US$1,516 million as at 31 December 2022 to approximately US$885 million as at 31 December 2023, and further decreased to approximately US$512 million as at 30 June 2024, primarily driven by the investment portfolio adjustments of some investors in the Group's products. As further noted from the Company's announcement dated 15 January 2025, the Group's assets under management was approximately US$501 million as at 31 December 2024.

Information on the Subscriber

With reference to the Board Letter, as at the Latest Practicable Date, the Subscriber is entitled to exercise control over approximately 15.58% of the total issued share capital of the Company. Therefore, the Subscriber is a substantial shareholder and a connected person of the Company under the GEM Listing Rules. Mr. Chan, through his control cover the Subscriber and other controlled corporations, is interested approximately 19.27% of the issued share capital of the Company as at the Latest Practicable Date and approximately 23.03% immediately after Completion. The Subscriber is an investment holding vehicle.

LETTER FROM GRAM CAPITAL

Reasons for and benefits of the Subscription

With reference to the Board Letter, the Board considers that the Subscription offers a good opportunity to strengthen the Shares' liquidity and broaden the capital base of the Group so as to facilitate its future development.

Financing alternative

As noted from the Board Letter, the Board considered other alternative methods to strengthen the Shares' liquidity such as debt financing, rights issue or open offer, before resolving with the Subscription. The Board has considered that debt financing may incur financial costs on the Group, while rights issue or open offer will incur additional costs including but not limited to underwriting commission and other professional fee and require relatively longer time when compared to the Subscription. The Subscription represents a cost-effective mean to strengthen the Shares' liquidity comparing with debt financing and other equity financing.

With reference to the 2024 Interim Report, the Group did not have any borrowings during 1H2024 and the Group had no borrowings outstanding as at 30 June 2024. As further advised by the Directors, the Group intends to maintain a debt-free position to avoid incurring financial costs.

In respect of equity financing, we noted that rights issue and open offer may (i) incur additional costs and other professional fees as compared to the Subscription; and (ii) require relatively longer time as compared to the Subscription.

Based on the above, we concur with the Directors that the Subscription is an appropriate fundraising mean.

Use of proceeds

With reference to the Board Letter, the aggregate gross proceeds of the Subscription will be approximately HK$7.8 million; the aggregate net proceeds of the Subscription, after the deduction of related fees and expenses, will be approximately HK$7.3 million. Based on the level of expenses the Company incurred for the year ended 31 December 2024, the Company expects the net proceeds from the Subscription will be used to cover expenses such as salaries (approximately 58%), office administrative expenses (approximately 16%), professional fees such as audit and legal fees and financial printing fees (approximately 9%), and promotion, marketing, travelling and other general expenses (approximately 17%).

As noted from the 2023 Annual Report and 2024 Interim Report, the Group recorded general and administrative expenses of approximately HK$74.1 million, HK$78.3 million and HK$31.7 million for FY2022, FY2023 and 1H2024, respectively, primarily consist of staff costs.

Based on our findings as detailed in the sub-section headed "Comparable transactions" under the section headed "Subscription price" below, 8 out of 11 of the underlying issuers of the Comparable Transactions (as defined below) intended to apply certain percentage of their net proceeds towards general working capital, particularly, 3 of which intended to apply all of their net proceeds from the Comparable Transactions towards general working capital.

LETTER FROM GRAM CAPITAL

Given the above, we do not doubt the reasonableness of applying net proceeds from the Subscription for the Group's general working capital.

In light of the above, we consider that although the Subscription is not conducted in the ordinary and usual course of business of the Group, it is in the interests of the Company and the Shareholders as a whole.

Principal terms of the Subscription

Set out below is the principal terms of the Subscription under the Subscription Agreement, details of which are set out under the section headed "Principal Terms of the Subscription Agreement" of the Board Letter.

Date	27 December 2024 (after trading hours of the Stock Exchange)
Parties	(i) the Company, as issuer; and (ii) the Subscriber

Subscription Shares

Subscription price

With reference to the Board Letter, the Subscription Price of HK$0.40 per Subscription Share represents:

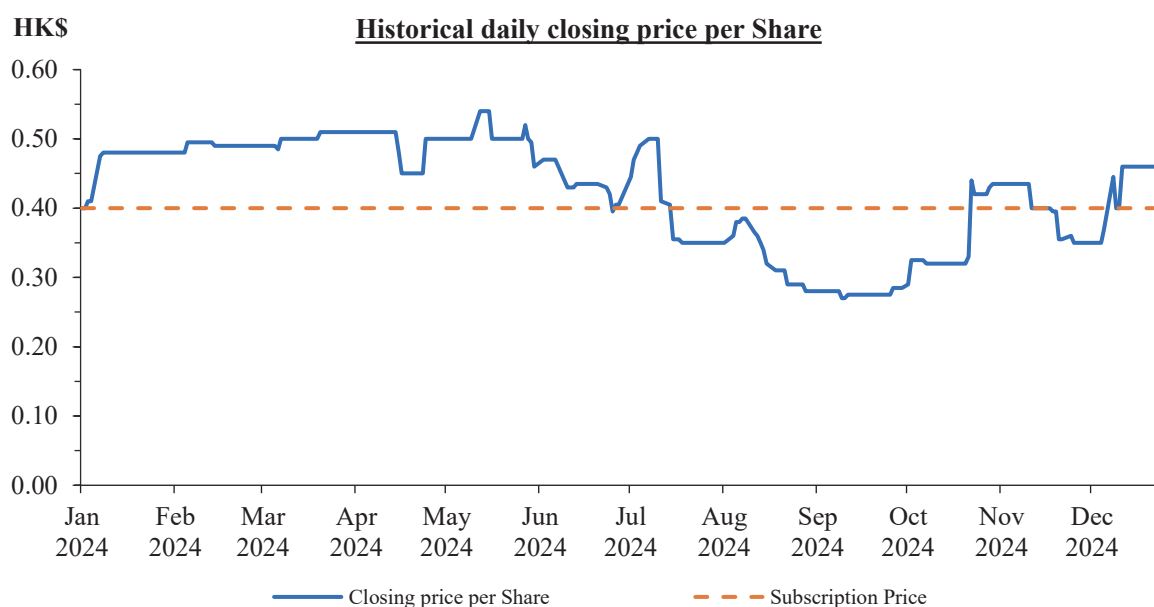

- (i) a discount of approximately 10.11% to the closing price of HK$0.445 per Share as quoted on the Stock Exchange on the Latest Practicable Date;
- (ii) a discount of approximately 13.04% to the closing price of HK$0.46 per Share as quoted on the Stock Exchange on 27 December 2024, being the Last Trading Day (the "LTD Discount");
- (iii) a discount of approximately 13.04% to the average closing price of approximately HK$0.46 per Share for the last five trading days up to and including the Last Trading Day (the "5 Days Discount"); and
- (iv) a discount of approximately 13.04% to the average closing price of approximately HK$0.46 per Share for the last 10 trading days up to and including the Last Trading Day (the "10 Days Discount").

LETTER FROM GRAM CAPITAL

With reference to the Board Letter, the Subscription Price was determined after arm's length negotiations between the Company and Subscriber after taking into account the prevailing market price of the Shares, the trading volume of the Shares, the existing capital market conditions and the funding needs.

Share price performance

Set out below is a chart showing the movement of the closing prices of Shares during the period from 2 January 2024 up to and including the Last Trading Day (the “Review Period”), being approximately one-year period prior to the Last Trading Day, which as a commonly adopted period for analysis and we consider to be fair and representative on the basis that the duration of such period is sufficient for us to perform a thorough analysis on the historical closing price of Shares. The comparison of the daily closing price of Shares and the Subscription Price is illustrated as follows:

Source: the Stock Exchange's website

During the Review Period, the lowest closing price of Shares as quoted on the Stock Exchange was HK$0.27 per Share as quoted on 10 September 2024 and 11 September 2024; and the highest closing price of Shares as quoted on the Stock Exchange were HK$0.54 per Share as quoted on 13 May 2024, 14 May 2024 and 16 May 2024. The Subscription Price of HK$0.40 per Share is within the range of the lowest and highest closing price of Shares.

From the start of the Review Period to 8 January 2024, the closing prices of Share increased sharply from HK$0.40 to HK$0.48. During the period from 8 January 2024 up to 16 April 2024, the closing prices of Shares remained relatively stable between the closing price range of HK$0.48 per Share to HK$0.51 per Share. On 17 April 2024, the closing price of Shares dropped to HK$0.45 per Share and remained unchanged up to 24 April 2024 before it rebounded and reached the highest closing price of Shares during the Review Period of HK$0.54 per Share on 13 May 2024, 14 May 2024 and 16 May 2024.

LETTER FROM GRAM CAPITAL

From 17 May 2024 to 26 June 2024, the closing price of Shares formed a decreasing trend and reached HK$0.40 per Share on 26 June 2024 before it spikes and reached HK$0.50 on 8 July 2024, 9 July 2024, 10 July 2024 and 11 July 2024. Thereafter, the closing price of Shares decreased sharply and reached the lowest closing price of Shares during the Review Period of HK$0.27 per Share on 10 September 2024 and 11 September 2024. From 2 October 2024, the closing price of Shares recovered and reached HK$0.46 per Share as recorded on the Last Trading Day.

Comparable transactions

As part of our analysis, we also identified connected transactions in relation to subscription of new ordinary shares under specific mandate for cash consideration (i.e. excluding loan capitalisation and set-off of debt in whole or in part) during the six-month period from 28 June 2024 up to and including the Last Trading Day, with the following criteria: (i) the subscription transactions were not lapsed or terminated up to the Latest Practicable Date; and (ii) the subscription transactions do not involve the issuance of A shares, H shares or domestic shares, as announced by companies listed on the Stock Exchange (the “Comparable Transactions”). We consider the selection criteria and the sampling period adopted enable us to identify sufficient samples of recently announced subscription transactions that are of similar nature as that of the Subscription. We found 11 transactions which met the said criteria and they are exhaustive. Shareholders should note that although the businesses, operations, market capitalisation and prospects of the Company are not the same as the subject companies of the Comparable Transactions, the Comparable Transactions can demonstrate the recent market practices of subscription transactions conducted by Hong Kong listed companies.

LETTER FROM GRAM CAPITAL

According to the above table, we noted that the premium/discount represented by the subscription prices of the Comparable Transactions:

- ranged from a discount of approximately 75.00% to a premium of approximately 65.56% (excluding outlier), with average discount of approximately 13.86% and median discount of approximately 9.09% to the respective closing prices of the shares on the last trading day prior to the entering into of the agreement in relation to the respective subscription.
- ranged from a discount of approximately 77.01% to a premium of approximately 66.89% (excluding outlier), with average discount of approximately 11.71% and median discount of approximately 9.09% to the respective average closing prices of the shares for the five consecutive trading days prior to and including the last trading day prior to the entering into of the agreement in relation to the respective subscription.

The LTD Discount, 5 Days Discount and 10 Days Discount are within the respective premium/discount range of the Comparable Transactions; while the LTD Discount represented smaller discount to the average of the Comparable Transactions (excluding outlier) and a slightly deeper discount to the median of the Comparable Transactions (excluding outlier), the 5 Days Discount and the 10 Days Discount represented deeper discount to the average and median of the Comparable Transactions (excluding outlier, if any).

LETTER FROM GRAM CAPITAL

Given the wide premium/discount ranges of the Comparable Transactions despite the exclusion of outlier (if any), we identified the Comparable Transactions with part or whole of its proceeds intended to be applied as general working capital to maintain sufficient sample size for our further analysis (the “GWC Comparable Transactions”). Set out below are extracts of the GWC Comparable Transactions based on the above table:

Company name (stock code)	Date of announcement	Market capitalisation as at the date of announcement (HK$ million)	Amount of gross proceeds raised (HK$ million)	Premium/ (discount) of the subscription price over/to the average closing price per share for the five consecutive trading days prior to and including the last trading day prior to the entering into of the	Premium/ (discount) of the subscription price over/to the average closing price per share for the five consecutive trading days prior to and including the last trading day prior to the entering into of the	Premium/ (discount) of the subscription price over/to the average closing price per share for the 10 consecutive trading days prior to and including the last trading day prior to the entering into of the	% of proceeds intended to be applied as general working capital

Note: We adopted the mean and standard deviation outlier detection method to identify outliers in the sampled data and the premium represented by the subscription price of the relevant transaction were exceptionally high as it is more than two standard deviations away from the mean and were considered as outliers.

According to the above table, we noted that the premium/discount represented by subscription prices of the GWC Comparable Transactions:

- ranged from a discount of approximately 75.00% to a premium of approximately 13.64% (excluding outlier), with average discount of approximately 33.85% and median discount of approximately 42.80% to the respective closing prices of the shares on the last trading day prior to the entering into of the agreement in relation to the respective subscription.

LETTER FROM GRAM CAPITAL

- ranged from a discount of approximately 77.01% to a premium of approximately 29.87% (excluding outlier), with average discount of approximately 31.45% and median discount of approximately 38.63% to the respective average closing prices of the shares for the five consecutive trading days prior to and including the last trading day prior to the entering into of the agreement in relation to the respective subscription.
- ranged from a discount of approximately 73.47% to a premium of approximately 42.05% (excluding outlier), with average discount of approximately 27.73% and median discount of approximately 27.04% to the respective average closing prices of the shares for the 10 consecutive trading days prior to and including the last trading day prior to the entering into of the agreement in relation to the respective subscription.

The LTD Discount, 5 Days Discount and 10 Days Discount are within the respective premium/discount range of the GWC Comparable Transactions and represented smaller discounts than the average and median of the GWC Comparable Transactions (excluding outlier). Furthermore, among the seven GWC Comparable Transactions (excluding outlier), only the subscription price for shares of Virtual Mind Holding Company Limited (stock code: 1520) represented premium over the then recent closing prices of its shares and the discounts represented by five out of six of the remaining GWC Comparable Transactions were deeper than the LTD Discount, 5 Days Discount and 10 Days Discount.

Having considered our analysis on the Comparable Transactions and the GWC Comparable Transactions; and that the Subscription Price is within the closing price range of Shares during the Review Period, we are of the view that the Subscription Price is fair and reasonable.

Completion of the Subscription

Completion will take place at 5:00 p.m. (Hong Kong time) on the third Business Day after the date (not being later than the Long Stop Date) the last condition has been satisfied, or such other date as the parties may agree in writing. At Completion, the Company will allot and issue 19,500,000 Subscription Shares to the Subscriber, and the Subscriber will make payments by electronic funds transfer.

Taking into account the above principal terms of the Subscription (including the Subscription Price), we consider that the terms of the Subscription are fair and reasonable.

Possible dilution effect on the shareholding interests of Independent Shareholders

According to the table set out under the section headed “Effect of the Subscription on Shareholding Structure of the Company” of the Board Letter, assuming there are no other changes in the share capital of the Company between the Latest Practicable Date and the date of the Completions, the shareholding interests held by existing public Shareholders would be diluted by approximately 0.67 percentage points as a result of the Subscription. We consider the said level of dilution to the shareholding interests of public Shareholders as a result of the Subscription to be acceptable.

LETTER FROM GRAM CAPITAL

RECOMMENDATION

Having taken into account the above factors and reasons, we are of the opinion that (i) the terms of the Subscription are on normal commercial terms and are fair and reasonable; and (ii) although the Subscription is not conducted in the ordinary and usual course of business of the Group, it is in the interests of the Company and the Shareholders as a whole. Accordingly, we recommend the Independent Board Committee to advise the Independent Shareholders to vote in favour of the resolution to be proposed at the EGM to approve the Subscription and we recommend the Independent Shareholders to vote in favour of the resolution in this regard.

Yours faithfully,
For and on behalf of
Gram Capital Limited
